

106596 - Trotting between the two markers in saa'i should be done in all laps

the question

Trotting in saa'i should be done when going to al-Marwah, but should it also be done when returning to al-Safa?.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

Yes, one should walk fast between the two markers in all laps of saa'i, from al-Safa to al-Marwah and from al-Marwah to al-Safa.

Ibn Qudaamah said in al-Mughni (10/236), when describing saa'i between al-Safa and al-Marwah:

It means coming down from al-Safa and walking until you are level with the marker, which is the green mark that is attached to the corner of the mosque. When you are about six cubits away from it, you should walk quickly until you come in line with the other marker, then you should stop trotting and walk (normally) until you come to al-Marwah, then stand to face the qiblah and say du'aa' as you did at al-Safa. ... Then come down and walk in the place for walking, and trot in the place for trotting. End quote.

The scholars of the Standing Committee for Issuing Fatwas were asked about that and said:

Yes, it is the same when going from al-Marwah to al-Safa as when going from al-Safa to al-Marwah, because the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) did that, as is proven in the saheeh ahaadeeth.

And Allaah is the Source of strength. May Allaah send blessings and peace upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family and companions. End quote.
